"BE ON YOUR GUARD; STAND FIRM IN THE FAITH; BE COURAGEOUS; BE STRONG." -1 CORINTHIANS 16:13

We are looking forward to 2012 Deaf Youth Conference. Our focus is to help our teens to stay on the path with Christ in everyday life. We all know the Christian life isn't easy and some would say it shouldn't be. So, how do your students look at their Christian life? Do they look at it as a chore? Do they look at it as a challenge? Do they see it as a journey and not a destination? We want to help your students live a life without boundaries. A life in which they are bold not just for the sake of being seen, but bold because they serve a God that is bold. A God that sees what they can become. How do they do that? They do that by Being on Guard, Standing Firm in the Faith. Being Courageous and Being Bold.

What To Expect:

Workshops: Our workshops will be hands-on learning experiences. We will talk about-facing persecution (bullying) with our faith, how to take the next step in living a life that fit God plans, and even mission trips.

Worship Service: Our worship service will be led by our teens and for teens. We'll have guest speakers, worship music and skit/drama all throughout the weekend.

Free Time: During free time students will have the option to go swimming, play games, competition game also, and hang out with old and new friends. We want our students to connect and grow.

Meal: We will be providing breakfast, lunch, dinner, snack and drinks for our students.

Sleep/Stay: Students will stay in the cabins. We have separate cabins for boys and girls. In the cabin are bunk bedding, bathroom and showers
